GERMAN PLOTS AT AN END

Official Announcement That German Intrigues in America to Start Revolt in India Are Ended.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, March 7. — German plots to foment revolutions in India, which date back many years before the European war, were said at the State Department today to be entirely under control so far as operations in this country are concerned.

San Francisco, which with Germany and China was used during the first part of the war, was one of the three main bases of operations; but the activities of the persons who directed operations there, whose names the Department will not disclose, are stated to have been curbed.
A smaller junta at Manila, against which the British government had protested, is also said to have been broken up.

RUSS WARSHIP STRIKES MINE

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Berlin, March 6, wireless to Tuckerton, N. J., March 7. — The Russian armed cruiser Rurik struck a mine in the Gulf of Finland and was badly damaged, according to reports from Stockholm, says an Overseas News Agency announcement.

Berlin, Tuesday, March 6.—News of the disaster to the Rurik was reported in Sweden despite the Russian naval censorship, the Agency's Stockholm advices state.
The warship was shortly afterward wrecked at Cronstadt, on the Gulf of Finland, it is added.

STEPS TOWARD NEW ARMY

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, March 7. — The War Department has directed that between 5,000 and 6,000 enlisted men of the army be designated by regimental commanders for commissions as company officers in whatever army may be raised.
Orders have been sent to each regiment to select sixty men who will be eligible for commissions up to and including captains.
The designation of the men will be on their military aptitude, not by examination.
The Department as a precautionary step, it was explained, desired to establish this list of men, deemed fit for commissions by officers under whom they have served.
Presumably the non-commissioned personnel will supply the largest number.

SUFFRAGE PARADE A LEADING FEATURE OF WASHINGTON AT INAUGURATION

COURT OF HONOR, PENNSYLVANIA AVE.

While all was put in readiness for President Wilson's inauguration, including the beautiful court of honor (shown in the picture) on Pennsylvania avenue, more than 400 women of the National Woman's party and the Congressional Union For Woman Suffrage paraded in a soaking rain around the White House, as seen in the accompanying picture. A committee sought admission to the president in order to present in person resolutions urging the adoption of the federal amendment that would give women the vote throughout the country, but they got no farther than the police sergeant station at the entrance to the executive offices and left the resolution, to be delivered after their departure. So far as could be learned President Wilson was in the White House throughout the demonstration and witnessed much of it from his windows.

The resolutions expressed the determination of the Women's party to continue its agitation for suffrage, making the international situation a reason for the continuation of activity rather than for abandoning it. It was said at the party's headquarters in Lafayette square that, in accordance with plans made months ago, the pickets who had been doing daily duty in front of the White House had been withdrawn, but that the headquarters would be kept open for the carrying on of the campaign with other tactics.

FREEDOM OF IRELAND TO BE DEBATED

British Premier Will Take Part in Dealing With Irish Question in House of Commons.

(Associated Press Cable.)
London, March 7. — The prospect that Lloyd George would take part in today's debate in the House of Commons on the Irish question and outline the Government's position toward Ireland aroused deep interest in the proceedings.

The debate hinges on a resolution which will be moved by T. T. O'Connor on behalf of the Nationalists.
The resolution reads as follows:
"That, with a view to strengthening the hands of the Allies in achieving recognition of equal rights for small nations and the principle of nationality against the opposite German principle of military domination and government without the consent of the governed, it is essential without further delay to confer upon Ireland, the free institutions long promised to her."

SOLONS TOAST FILIBUSTERS

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Des Moines, Iowa, March 7.—A resolution that the Iowa General Assembly recognize that the action of Senators Cummins and Kenyon "by aiding the filibuster against the armed ship bill in the United States Senate held up the state as an object for scorn and contempt," and repudiating the action, is expected to be taken up for consideration in the lower branch of the Legislature today. The resolution was introduced yesterday but was held over until today.

MAY ADOPT MODIFIED CLOTURE

Senators, After Conference With President, Express Hope of Finding Way.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, March 7. — President Wilson had a conference early today at the White House with Senators Owen, Reed, Walsh, Swanson, James and Hoke Smith, the committee named by the Senate Democratic caucus, and discussed the proposed changes in the Senate rules which would prevent unlimited debate and filibustering such as killed the armed neutrality bill.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, March 7. — After the White House conference, the Democratic Senators hurried to the Capitol for a conference with Republican leaders to lay before them a plan for a modified cloture, which the Democrats hope to bring before the Senate tomorrow.
The Democrats said they expected prompt action.
The senators agreed that the prospects were good for quick action in the Senate. Senator Owen said he desired a rule under which the Senate rules could be changed by a majority vote.

All the senators agreed, however, they would not haggle over details if a reasonable cloture plan could be agreed upon.
The conference lasted more than an hour and a half, and all the details of the Senate situation were gone over.

The President told the senators he was anxious for action as promptly as possible.
He said the country was deeply aroused over the situation, and any of the senators should not be allowed to interfere with the welfare of the country.

Although Mr. Wilson has been advised by some government experts that he has the authority to arm the ships without waiting for action by Congress, others among his advisers believe it would be the better policy to wait and see whether the Senate will act.

A Democratic and Republican cloture committee agreed at its conference to recommend to the party caucuses later today a change of the rules so that by a two thirds vote in the Senate debate could be shut off and dilatory tactics prevented.

They slightly changed the wording of the resolution framed at their meeting last night, and this will be submitted to their caucuses for approval.

INVESTIGATE EXPLOSION

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Cincinnati, O., March 7. — After an investigation of the explosion at the Ford assembling plant on Lincoln Avenue, which cost the lives of four men yesterday afternoon and the serious injury of another, Coroner Bauer expressed the belief that an inquest would be necessary.
He based this belief on evidence which he had obtained at the Bethesda Hospital, where two of the victims, Frank Fisele and George Sankhorn, died.
Dr. Bauer was told that before death Sankhorn had said that the explosion in the enameling oven was followed by that of a quantity of gasoline which was in the department.

MANY VESSELS ARE TORPEDOED

(Associated Press Cable)

BILL CARRIES AN INCREASE OF $600,000

Appropriation Measure Presented Today Carries Forty-two Millions—Senate Adopts the Crawford Bill.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Columbus, O., March 7.—The biennial appropriation bill was introduced in the House today by Representative Cowan, of Putnam, Chairman of the House Finance Committee, carrying a $600,000 increase over the $42,000,000 appropriation recommended in the budget presented by Governor Cox to the General Assembly several weeks ago.

More than half of the $600,000 increase is for the State Board of Administration, made necessary on account of the increased cost of food products.

It carries an item of $83,000 to provide a 15 per cent increase in salaries for minor employees of state institutions.

There are approximately 3,000 of these employees, many of whom have not had increases in the last quarter of a century, it is said.
The appropriation bill was made a special order of business for Thursday afternoon in the House.

The House passed a number of minor bills this morning, among them the Heffrich bill, providing for the transfer of the enforcement of laws relating to the practice of pharmacy from the State Board of Agriculture to the State Board of Pharmacy.

By a unanimous vote the State Senate this afternoon passed the Crawford bill, increasing by nearly $2,000,000 the common school levy for the next year.

Last year's levy was $2,690,000. Under the Crawford measure, which now goes to the House, the levy would be $4,598,000.

CRITICISM OF WILSON IS BITTER

Berlin Newspaper Declares President Tore Up Monroe Doctrine in Address.

(Associated Press Cable.)
Berlin, Tuesday, March 6, via London, March 7.—The Lokal Anzeiger in a lengthy editorial today severely criticizes President Wilson's inaugural address.

"On the selfsame day that James Monroe, 100 years ago, assumed the presidency," says the newspaper, "his successor President Wilson, at the Capitol in Washington tore up the document known as the Monroe Doctrine, which for a century has been the cardinal feature of America's foreign policies."

"The peculiarly veiled rhetoric in which he clothes his inaugural sentiments admits of no other interpretation."

"The entire address is plainly an argument in support of the necessity which President Wilson thinks has been shown by the world war that there should be enforced on the Old World the laws which he has evolved in his own mind for regulating the inter relations of the nations of the earth in future."

"In this ambition is revealed a measure of presumption which, thank God, is in inverse ratio to the physical assets at his command needed to achieve the realization of his program."

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Columbus, O., March 7. — Charged with killing Miss Mona Simons in his room at a leading hotel here six weeks ago, Weldon H. Wells, a young broker's clerk formerly employed in Kansas City, whose home is in Huntington, Indiana, today was indicted for first degree murder. His trial probably will be held in April.

FIRMS MUST USE THEIR OWN BOTTLES

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Columbus, O., March 7.—The law providing punishment for dealers using bottles belonging to their competitors, enacted in 1915, has been held to be constitutional by Attorney General McGhee in an opinion to the state board of agriculture. Many milk companies and bottling companies have complained to the board that unwarranted use is being made of their bottles by competitors and the board wanted to know if the law is sound before taking steps to prosecute the offenders.

REV. ARBUCKLE DELIVERS SECOND SERMON OF SERIES

Large Audience Hears Former Pastor of Grace Church in One of His Usual Powerful Sermons.

The second sermon of the series to be delivered by former pastors of Grace M. E. Church was given by Dr. J. C. Arbuckle, Tuesday night, in the presence of a much larger audience than that on the previous night.

Dr. Arbuckle, always a forceful speaker and a minister who has always ranked high in the estimation of the citizens generally, did not disappoint the big audience, Tuesday night, but gave a sermon full of power, dealing with the fundamentals of Christian life, his words proving very helpful to the new converts as well as to the audience in general.

The special song service was conducted by Miss Sheen, and proved a most interesting part of the services.

Considerable speculation has been aroused as to who is to deliver the sermon on any given night during the five night series, but this is still a secret. Those who are yet to come are Rev. F. E. Ross, Rev. T. W. Locke and Rev. Franklin McElfresh.

"I congratulate Grace Church on its new opportunity and responsibility in this, fine new members class.

"The greatest thing anyone can do is to accept the privileges and responsibilities of the Christian life.

"The greatest moment in my life was when I gave my life to God. That settled for me more thing in the present and future than anything else I ever did.

"The greatest institution in the world—that which has the greatest values for humanity, that most worthy of our support and service is the Christian Church.

Our Plymouth Rock forefathers held a prayer meeting when they landed, then built a church and then the school house. The Christian Church and the public school are the two foundation stones upon which our nation rests—and the greatest of these is the Christian Church.

"We ought not to be indifferent—we need to magnify it more and more—too many of us are not earnest enough, we haven't appreciated what it means, we haven't thoroughly turned ourselves into doing what we ought—we have been satisfied to "jog" along. We ought to do our very best to make the Christian Church the one indispensable thing in society.

"If you new members—put your hand to this work in the right way there is a head of you a great usefulness and a glorious immortality.

"It is not enough to keep the Sabbath, to say prayers, to get baptised, to go through some outward forms. We may have all these but fall far short of living the Christian life. We should have the real vital possession of Jesus Christ in our lives.

Some people say they don't join the church because there are so many faulty church members in it. If that rule holds good there will be no more joining anywhere in lodges, political parties or anywhere else—the thing for such people to do is to come into the church and play the man and woman and help the church to be what it ought to be—the real soldier joins the army before the war is over, not afterwards.

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION IN STONE QUARRY

"Where was it? What was it? How was it?"

These and similar questions have been pouring in thick and fast as result of a tremendous explosion about 8:35 Tuesday night when a half dozen counties in this part of Ohio rocked under the force of some terrific blast.

First reports were that a drying house at Kings Mills, 15 miles west of Wilmington, had blown up, and this report was followed by one that the mills at Goes station, north of Xenia, had let go.

After considerable telephoning to adjoining towns and cities it was learned Wednesday afternoon that the blast occurred in a stone quarry near Memphis, seven miles south of Sabina, where contractors Bloom and Connor, who are operating the big quarry, had placed 31 charges of dynamite in the face of the quarry, and discharged all of the charges at once, wiping away the face of the quarry and shattering windows in the immediate territory.

In all upward of 500 pounds of dynamite was used in the great blast, which was felt 30 miles distant.

In this city and county thousands of persons noticed the heavy concussion which shook every building and caused a great deal of speculation as to what had happened.

When the shock of the explosion came citizens invariably made an investigation about their homes, believing something had fallen, and curiously enough it was the general idea that something in the upper part of the homes had fallen over, causing the severe jar.

It was observed that the shock came from the west or north-west, and for about two seconds windows were rattled and buildings vibrated.

It was not long until the telephone was busy in an effort to ascertain the source of the great concussion.

A number of amusing incidents were recorded in connection with the shock. One man believed one of his youngsters had fallen out of bed, and awaited to hear its cries. Another believed some one was prowling about his home, and conducted a breathless investigation. Others suspected an attempt to rob one of the banks.

Wednesday morning scores of telephone inquiries regarding the explosion were received at The Herald office.

RECEPTION HELD FOR NEW MEMBERS

A reception was held Tuesday evening at the Christian Church for the members who have united with this congregation during the recent series of meetings.

A royal welcome was accorded the large number who have lately united with this church and the spirit of good fellowship was everywhere manifest. There were about three hundred present.

A short, interesting program was rendered, consisting of addresses and instrumental and vocal music. After the close of the program an informal social hour was spent in getting better acquainted with each other. The name of each person was written in large letters and pinned upon the backs of their coats or dresses. This proved to be a most helpful and unique method of finding out the name of every person present.

Refreshments were served consisting of sandwiches, coffee and cake. The hospitality and sociability for which this congregation has always been noted was at its best and all went home feeling that the evening was one to be long remembered.

DEATH SHADOWS ROTHROCK HOME

One of the well known homes of our city was shadowed by the coming of the death angel Tuesday night at half past ten o'clock, when after weary weeks of suffering, Mrs. Effie J. Rothrock, wife of Mr. J. W. Rothrock passed quietly into the realms of eternal peace.

For some time Mrs. Rothrock has been suffering from ill health, and for the past few months her growing frailty has been the source of deep anxiety to the husband and two children, Frank of this city, and Mrs. Anna Lee Bell, of Columbus, as well as to her many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Rothrock would have celebrated their golden wedding next November, rounding out a half century of married life marked by much quiet happiness. For thirty years they have lived in the home on the corner of N. Main and Temple streets and had become identified with the interests of the neighborhood as only old residents can be.

Charitable and kindly in her nature it was Mrs. Rothrock's greatest pleasure to do for her neighbors and friends and her many thoughtful acts of kindness will be long recalled. Throughout her entire life her deepest interests centered in her home and in her church.

Most of all will she be missed in the devoted home circle and to the family so sorely bereaved goes out the deepest sympathy of relatives and friends.

She will also be greatly missed from the Presbyterian church, from which she was never willingly absent, and from its branch societies.

The funeral services will be held in the First Presbyterian Church, Thursday afternoon at two o'clock Rev. Gage officiating.

It was Mrs. Rothrock's own desire that friends send no flowers and the only ones which will be around her will be those of her immediate family

The Prussian Treaty

Never was relic more popular than is "that musty old script," the Prussian-American treaty of 1828, at the present time.

Twice it has been dragged into the public limelight within the past few months in connection with the relations of the United States and Germany in the submarine issue.

Its provisions were seriously considered in the William P. Frye case and aided materially in the negotiations that attended it.

Its provisions are now again insisted upon by the German Government where they respect the protection of German citizens in the United States in time of war.

That part of the treaty which provides for the protection of American shipping, however, would seem, if we understand Dr. Zimmerman, merely a "scrap of paper," and not worthy of serious consideration.

Here is the way it reads:

"If one of the contracting parties should be engaged in war with any other power, the free intercourse and commerce of the subjects or citizens of the party remaining neutral with the belligerent powers shall not be interrupted. On the contrary, in that case, as in full peace, the vessels of the neutral party may navigate freely to and from the ports and on the coasts of the belligerent parties, free vessels making free goods, inasmuch as all things shall be adjudged free which shall be on board any vessel belonging to the neutral party, although such things belong to an enemy of the other; and the same freedom shall be extended to persons who shall be on board a free vessel, although they should be enemies to the other party, unless they be soldiers in actual service of such enemies."

Quite clear, all of it; no two ways about it. And this concise clause appears on the very same piece of paper with that relating to the protection of Germans in America, and the same German seal and signature pledge them both.

Germany Vs. United States

With relations between the United States and Germany daily growing more strained, a critical survey of the strength of the nations is not irrelevant. Military observers point out that in equipment this country is the stronger, but that in real warfare the training of the Germans would discount this.

In case of war the navy would be the first defensive line of the United States. In ships, and in men to man them, the United States is the stronger. Also, American marksmanship is such that German ultra-efficiency in this respect would undoubtedly meet its match.

The United States has 17 first line ships and Germany 20 of the same class. We have 25 second line ships and Germany 20. The tonnage of the American navy is 1,097,502, and that of Germany 1,305,640. Germany's fighting men in the navy are 79,197, while ours number 82,153. As to submarines, it is supposed that Germany has a greater number of this craft than America. These figures were made before the war and Germany's war losses, whatever they may be, are to be taken into account.

The war strength of the German army is nominally 5,400,000. This has, of course, been decreased by the war; how much it is impossible to estimate. We have 143,704 national guardsmen in federal service and 20,526,347 reserves in the unorganized militias of the states. The regular army now totals 125,000 men in the states and 5,733 in the Philippines.

Our natural resources greatly exceed those of Germany even in normal times. In a prolonged struggle the odds would favor America, the longer the greater.

It is not likely, though, that these resources will ever be needed. England holds the German fleet, except for its submarines, powerless. There are already more men than necessary on the fighting fronts. Should a state of war between the two countries develop, about the most that could come of it, it seems, would be the sending of more munitions to the allies and a possible slight reinforcement of the allied fleets.

Spring is a season of new life. It is a time for cleaning up generally. Don't clean house and neglect your blood. Many people are run down in general health and don't seem to realize just what the trouble is.

You should renovate your entire system in the early spring so that you may be able to work and play without exertion. We have all the good

Poetry For Today

"If"

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated, don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise.

If you can dream and not make dreams your master;
If you can think and not make thoughts your aim;
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat these two imposters just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools.

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose and start again at your beginnings
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And to hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with Kings nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And which is more you'll be a Man, my son!

—Rudyard Kipling.

In Social Circles

The men of the First Baptist church and their wives, with a few privileged friends, greatly enjoyed the monthly business meeting and social session at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard McLean Tuesday night.

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. McLean and most hospitably filling the role of entertainers, were Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Walter McLean.

Music, games and an appetizing lunch contributed to a merry evening.

There is always "some thing doing" in the Browning Club and at Tuesday night's meeting plans were completed for a lecture quite out of the ordinary, for which the club brings from Columbus, Mr. Ernest Jaros on March the twentieth. Mr. Jaros will give the illustrated lecture on "Chapters in the Story of Woman's Dress," which he has delivered before the Federated Clubs and the Art Club of Columbus. The lecture will be illustrated by colored slides, representing dress of the different periods and of the primitive textile designs found in the Inca ruins of Peru. Mr. Jaros traces the influence of these early textiles up the modern textile most interestingly.

The Browning Club will entertain all the club women of Washington at this lecture.

The evening's business disposed of the President, Mrs. Haldee Van Winkle Coffman, turned the meeting over to Mrs. O. K. Probasco, chairman of the Household economic department.

Mrs. James Flynn gave an intensely interesting paper on Thomas Edison and his sensible regulation of diet, which has insured his own health and that of his followers. Edison's rule, seldom broken was three to four ounces of food three times a day. Like Napoleon he never sleeps when here is anything to do. It is due to his careful diet more than anything else that Edison has worked twenty-four hours a day for thirty eight years.

Miss Sutton, Public Health Nurse and a valuable member of the Social Science and Philanthropy Department, discussed "Public Health in Ohio."

The special subject of her talk was the fly as a menace of health. Her statements were strengthened by stereopticon views which gave full details of the life of the fly; the millions of bacteria germs they scatter everywhere, and their death spreading disease of all kinds.

Miss Sutton presented the necessity of a fly campaign forcefully and made valuable suggestions for "clean up" week and what work would be most potent for the life and health of the community.

The Youngstown paper contains the following account of a banquet given in honor of Supt. N. H. Chaney former Supt. of the local schools who has for some years been at the head of The Youngstown schools.

"As a birthday courtesy to Superintendent of Schools N. H. Chaney, a company of nearly a hundred, composed of principals of local public schools with their wives and a number of special teachers and principals of the high schools, gathered at a banquet served in Burt's gray room Saturday evening.

"An elaborate dinner was served during which an orchestra rendered patriotic and other music. At its completion C. J. Tylee, who officiated in an able and amusing manner as toastmaster, called on T. H. Bulla to respond to the toast, "Our Leader."

Mr. Bulla complimented the efforts of Dr. Chaney to bring the work of the local schools up to its present high standard of excellence and said that in leading the principals and teachers to greater efforts he has also led them to better their own condition materially by aiding them to higher salaries than they would have otherwise received and making of them men and women of greater service to the community.

Miss Laura Ray, who was not assigned a subject, spoke of the love which all who have come in contact with Dr. Chaney in the work of the schools have for him, and the respect he commands in his position.

A Clever Toast

Miss Elizabeth Carmichael, supervisor of music, was given the task of responding to "A Toast in Tune." This she accomplished in a clever manner by reading an original poem involving the musical scale and which referred in an apt way to Dr. Chaney's various achievements and the improvements he has introduced in the local schools. The whole assemblage joined in singing a song, also composed by Miss Carmichael, set to the tune of "Yankee Doodle," which further recounted the achievements of Dr. Chaney and caused much merriment.

Mrs. H. T. Wikin gave an informal luncheon of six covers Wednesday in honor of her mother, Mrs. William Bean, of Hillsboro.

Adding to the charm of the affair were pretty suggestions of Spring in the immense center bowl of yellow tulips adorning the exquisitely appointed table and in the delicacies of the luncheon courses.

Mrs. L. P. Howell extended the hospitality of her home to the monthly business meeting and social session of the Charlotte Tuttle Sisterhood, Tuesday night.

The evenings hostesses with Mrs. Howell were Mesdames Chas. Briggs, J. W. Anderson, Albert McCoy, Rell G. Allen, Miss Alva Rodgers.

Refreshments were served during a social hour fully enjoyed.

The Sisterhood will hold a banquet at the Presbyterian church Friday evening at six o'clock.

The Y. W. F. M. Society of Grace church was held at the home of Miss Fern Sunkle, Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. Ruth Dial in charge of the literary program and Mrs. Nona Feagins of the music.

There was an interesting paper on "The Missionary Frances Colliard," by Mrs. Herman Hodson, and Mrs. Dial took up the study lesson, "Heroism in Christian Conquests."

Mrs. Ruth Boyd contributed a lovely contralto solo. Mrs. Vordenfelt as pianist, and Miss Lizzie Ellen Green a pretty piano solo.

Mrs. Minnie McClimans presented "The Jubilee Movement," which will celebrate in 1919 the 50th anniversary of the W. F. S. society, in a very interesting way. There were several new members.

SOLONS WILL CONTINUE THE GRIND AFTER THURSDAY

Recess of Five Minutes Will Be Taken After Which Work Will Be Resumed.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., March 7.—The General Assembly was not expected by its leaders today to be able to complete its program by tomorrow night, the time set for recess, but it will not change the resolution calling for recess March 8 and final adjournment March 20. Both houses simply will "recess for five minutes" Thursday night and continue Friday as of the same legislative day. The same may be done again Friday night, but legislative leaders insisted that the active work of the session would be completed this week.

Governor Cox attend a caucus of Democratic House members yesterday and urged members to attend strictly to business until the close of the session and give due consideration to all measures and not permit the usual frivolities to interrupt the closing session.

Republican members of the House today were demanding of the majority that the Reynolds resolution, providing for an investigation of campaign expenses in the recent campaign, be conducted by a bi-partisan committee of the two houses instead of a committee dominated by Democrats to be named by the speaker of the House and the president of the Senate. Republican Floor Leader Rieghard said the minority would not object to an investigation by such a committee but if Democrats do not accept this plan, Republicans threaten to "throw monkey wrenches" into the machinery during the closing hours of the session.

The Clark bill to create a state bureau of markets within the state board of agriculture which passed the House yesterday was messaged to the Senate today. This is a Republican measure although it was supported by Democrats in the House. It is aimed at the high cost of living, being designed to create closer co-operation between producers and consumers. The bureau is to be under the direction of the secretary of agriculture and is to act as a clearing house of information relative to crops, prices, freight and commission rates and will publish bulletins giving market news.

The deadlock in the state board of health for the last two years between the eight members over the appointment of an executive secretary is to be broken by the creation of a health council and a health commission as provide for in the Wright bill which passed the House yesterday and now goes to the governor for his signature. The Wright measure is modeled after the New York health commission act, regarded by health authorities as a model law. Under the present law, the board of health is limited to paying $3,500 a year salary to its executive secretary. Because of this limited salary, the health board was unable to keep its former secretary, Dr. E. F. McCampbell. Under the new bill the council, appointed by the governor, fixes the salary and picks the health commissioner.

State Senator G. F. Harding of Hamilton county, has been selected by Ohio anti-suffragists to have charge of their referendum campaign this fall for the repeal of the Reynolds act granting presidential suffrage to the women of Ohio.

Efficiency appropriation bond issues in cities may be carried by a majority instead of a two-thirds vote if the Terrell bill for relief of debt-burdened cities becomes a law. The measure has the backing of Governor Cox and former Governor Harman.

The First Authoritative Word on the New Spring Style

IF a woman friend at a distance were to write, asking you to tell her in a word the underlying tendency of the styles for Spring, you could sum it all up by saying, "It is the Spirit of Youth."

The young figure—the slender silhouette—the graceful clinging lines.

Even the new colors and fabrics suggest the first tender budding of Spring—mist green, mauve, grayed-purples.

Now, being a practical woman, you'd tell her something more—that the fashion for Spring is one not to be trifled with!

Most stores sell a very mixed hodge-podge of fashion gathered from many different sources. In seasons of variable style-tendencies faulty dressing is not so conspicuous.

But this season fashion is sharply defined. A woman must have authority back of her style—quality in the fabric and the making.

The new suits and coats call for master-tailoring.

It is seasons like these that emphasize the service of such makers as The H. Black Company, the originators of most of the progressive steps in women's tailoring.

Their Wooltex line of Young Women's Coats and Suits is designed in the very spot where styles originate day by day—the great metropolitan cities.

They are known to smart dressers from coast to coast and they have an ever increasing clientele of these discriminating women.

They originated the making of Youthful Models for all women.

And they were the first to see that style and lasting good appearance are dependent on a different and superior sort of tailoring.

They were the first makers in America to sign every garment with their own name and trademark, and to be responsible for it to the wearer.

The prices are moderate—Suits at $25 to $65—especially attractive models from $25 to $45, and Coats from $16.50 to $75—exceptional selections at $16.50, $20, $25 and $35.

Altogether they are good people to know. And particularly so this season, when the style demands an expert hand and master-tailoring for its interpretation.

In nearly every worth-while city in this country you will find one store and only one where The H. Black Company's Wooltex Coats and Suits can be had.

In this city it is—

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "foggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brains and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.
